CAYLEE ANTHONY HOMICIDE - CASE REVIEW

Orange County Sheriff's Department

Two-year-old Caylee Marie Anthony was reported missing to authorities in Orange County, Florida, on July 15, 2008. Her remains were found in a wooded area near her home in December 2008. Her then 22-year-old mother, Casey Marie Anthony, was tried for the first degree murder of Caylee beginning in May 2011. The trial lasted for six weeks, and on July 5, 2011, Casey Anthony was acquitted of first degree murder. However, she was convicted of four misdemeanor counts of providing false information to police officers. The lead investigators will review and discuss the investigation and trial proceedings.

LT. COL. DAVE GROSSMAN, Retired

Col. Grossman is a former West Point psychology professor, Professor of Military Science, and an Army Ranger who has combined his experiences to become the founder of a new field of scientific endeavor, which has been termed "killology." In this new field Col. Grossman has made revolutionary new contributions to our understanding of killing in war, the psychological costs of war, the root causes of the current "virus" of violent crime that is raging around the world, and the process of healing the victims of violence, in war and peace. He has presented to over 100 different colleges and universities worldwide, and has trained educators and law enforcement professionals, in the field of school safety, at the state and regional level, in all 50 states and over a dozen foreign nations.
